

The True Jesus Christ of the Bible	The Imposter & False Christ of Mormonism who is an Antichrist
#1 The Jesus of the Bible is uniquely divine and is unlike the Devil who is merely a created angel.	#1 The Mormon Jesus is not different in substance and essence to Lucifer who rebelled and became the Devil.
#2 The Jesus of the Bible is impeccable - which means that even though He was tempted, it is impossible for Jesus to sin because He Himself is uniquely divine and is Himself the standard of righteousness.	#2 The Jesus of Mormonism would be just as able to have rebelled as his brother Lucifer, since Lucifer rebelled and they were of the same spiritual make up and essence being mere spirit brothers.
#3 The Jesus of the Bible is all powerful. He is more powerful than the Devil and has always been more powerful than Lucifer both before and after Lucifer rebelled. The Devil is no match for Jesus, for Jesus is the Son of God and is omnipotent while the Devil is a mere fallen angel.	#3 The Jesus of Mormonism has essentially no more power than Lucifer because again they are of the same essence and stuff being brothers.
#4 The Jesus of the Bible is the creator of all things and all things were made by Him, and through Him, and for Him.	#4 The Jesus of Mormonism was created just like his younger brother Lucifer and just like the rest of the spirits that are sent into humans at conception.
#5 The Jesus of the Bible is eternal and infinite, was never created and has, does, and will exist as the Son of God for all eternity. While Lucifer at one time did not exist and was in fact created by God and later rebelled and became the Devil.	#5 The Jesus of Mormonism is the elder brother of Lucifer but by how long? How many years? For Mormon doctrine, there was a time when Jesus was not just as there was a time when Lucifer was not, just as there was a time when the other spirit children were not. The Jesus of the Mormonism in fact is not eternal. Jesus merely predated his elder brother Lucifer by an unspecified number of years.
#6 The Jesus of the Bible is the one and only God who is one in essence with the Father and the Spirit. The God of the Bible exists as one God revealed in three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This is explained by the Christian doctrine of the Trinity.	#6 The Jesus of Mormonism is one "in purpose" with the Father. Not one in essence and being. Mormonism puts qualifiers and limitations that are not in Scripture when interpreting the following passage. John 10:30 I and my Father are one. Mormons teach that Jesus is merely one in "purpose" not just one with the Father. They openly deny the doctrine of the Trinity.
#7 The Jesus of the Bible has no mother, no spiritual grandfather of grandmother or great-grandfather or heavenly relatives. Jesus is one with the Father and the Holy Spirit as one God and there is none else. Isaiah 45:5-6 I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: ... (6) That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and there is none else. Isaiah 45:21b ... and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me.	#7 The Jesus of the Mormonism is not the Son of God but rather is a son of God which Elohim God produced with his wife, - (or from one of God's wives). This means that the Jesus of Mormonism has a spirit mother who is God's wife and many heavenly step mothers because of the polygamy of the heavenly Father. The Jesus of Mormonism also has full and half brothers and sisters as well. The Jesus of Mormonism has Elohim as his father, and an unnamed spiritual father before that, who would be Elohim's father and therefore Jesus' grandfather. The Mormon Jesus has heavenly grandparents and heavenly great-grandparents and heavenly great-great-grandparents, and so on as well as heavenly cousins, heavenly second cousins, and even heavenly third cousins twice removed, and great heavenly uncles, etc. It would take another visit from Moroni to explain the whole heavenly family tree of Jesus. Each god has a planet to rule with his wives.
